

April 24, 2014 Superintendent Report

1. SNAPSHOT OF EXCELLENCE:

a. QCSD Young Artist Honored By BCIU

Richland Elementary’s Alexandra Bevin-Xenelis was one of 19 student artists honored this week at the Bucks County Intermediate Unit’s annual art reception. She, her sister Teddy and her parents all attended. Her art teacher is Jen Robison but Strayer Middle School art teacher Kate Fetterolf attended the ceremony as the QCSD Arts Advisory Council representative.

“I was so proud of Alexandra and all of the artists from across Bucks County,” Mrs. Fetterolf said. “It is a powerful event that clearly meant the world to the young artists! I have really enjoyed serving on the Arts Advisory Council this year.” Now a third grader, Alexandra created the piece in second grade. It is a collaged, mixed media seascape.

b. 12 PMEA District 11 Chorus students

Mr. Lechner is proud to show off his recent shining stars including 12 students who participated in PMEA District 11 regionals. They are:

Caitlin DiCara	Liam Fletcher
Danielle Verguldi	Michael Kelsall
Kristina Diefenderfer	Emilio Chase
Alicia Loch	Joseph Cianciola
Lydia Stepanoff	Ilan Gonzalez
Ron Jon Cabbage	Andrew Stuhr

2. Richland Elementary Repairs to Landscape and Electrical Box

Mr. Kelly Harper reported that he submitted a claim to the insurance company for the truck damage to the landscaping and the electrical box in the circle out front of Richland Elementary School. The insurance company fully reimbursed us for the damages in the amount of $2,000. Repairs have been scheduled to fix the landscaping and the electrical box.

3. Visit from Dr. Stephanie Shanblatt, President of Bucks County Community College
